Internalization & Internationalization

Our club was recently voted the Best Private Members' Club in the country in the Golf Malaysia Golf Course Poll 2007/2008. Other accolades received included the 3rd best Clubhouse/Facilities in Malaysia and the 12th Best Golf Course in the country. In fact, for a number of years the golfers who voted in the biennial Golf Malaysia Golf Course Poll have ranked us amongst the top clubs, confirming the high regard most golfers have for KGNS. Our vision of being a Premier Membership Golf Club in the country appears to have been achieved. The question now is whether we can sustain our position of supremacy. And this will only be possible with continuous support from all.

Golfers at home and abroad speak highly of our golf course. Inter-club matches on our home ground are always oversubscribed by other clubs' members. In a recent review, the number of affiliated members patronizing our club far exceeded the number of our members using the facilities of our reciprocal clubs, forcing us to institute measures to maintain the balance.

The number of requests to host private games, especially at the Putra course, has also been on the rise. However, in order to safeguard members' interests, only top ranked internationally renowned competitions are to be featured to enhance and maintain the prestigious status of our Club. We are indeed very honoured that this year the MGA has selected us to host the 106th Malaysian Amateur Open in May, followed by TSM GOLF – 'In search of the Malaysian Tiger' in June, and our very own inaugural KGNS Ladies Open in July. It should be only a matter of time before the 'Malaysian Open' returns to Subang.

At the international level, we are aggressively increasing our affiliation status with well-known golf clubs. We cannot help it, however, if some clubs decide to terminate their long-standing relationship with us for reasons that are beyond our control. The steps taken to maintain KGNS as a premier golf club are well known to all especially at the international level and they shall be actively pursued. Members who abuse club privileges and tarnish our reputation shall be severely dealt with.

The long-standing KGNS land issue should also be amicably resolved. Members are asked to understand its implications and the long-term benefit that will be available once this matter is resolved. The various sub-committees have also been briefed to assist members in understanding and supporting this issue when it is discussed at an appropriate forum.

In order to safeguard members' interests, only top ranked internationally renowned competitions are to be featured to enhance and maintain the prestigious status of our Club.

Towering individuals are being sought to occupy key positions to ensure efficient action and excellent management at our club. Members are also urged to exercise wisdom to select capable, honest and hard working committee members at our coming AGM. The adage that 'the burden is ours and the glory is yours!' will also be reviewed to encourage participation of quality representatives. Practices at successful and reputable golf clubs will be examined and may be adopted as expectations of members today are very different from when the club by-laws were first drafted.

As Captain, I am also obliged to note here that despite all the recognition and attention that KGNS has received, and in spite of the good image built, dedicated service rendered, and the aspirations communicated, some members continue to be indifferent, uncooperative, unfriendly and negative on all matters affecting the Club. A few are fond of seeking cheap frivolous thrills around the table through bad mouthing, back stabbing and rumour mongering leading to cowardly acts of poison pen letter writing and personal attacks, behaviour which should not be evident at a club like ours. These misdemeanors detract from the true spirit of friendship and from the good clubbing atmosphere sought by most members and is totally unacceptable at KGNS if we are to move forward.

I categorically state here that being responsible club officials, club image is paramount and overrides personal interests. Any unsubstantiated accusations and wild allegations by anyone are purely malicious and will never be tolerated by us. Such irresponsible members should be ostracized by all.

Our Vision, Mission, Values and Plan of actions are formulated to bring about positive changes to our Club and to our members. As responsible members we ought to internalize these qualities to ensure togetherness in spirit and as support for us to make quantum leaps to greater heights. It is so easy to criticize others without volunteering to share the burdens. If one really cares for the club, enjoys golfing and the comradeship of club members, please appreciate what we have and not be selfish by causing distress to others just to satisfy personal grudges!

Happy Golfing!

KGNS hosts 106th Malaysian Amateur Open

KGNS will play host to the 106th edition of the Malaysian Amateur Open (MAO) on 22-25 May 2008. Billed as one of the oldest golf championships in the region, it was last held here in 1978. As in past years, the event is expected to draw an international field of golfers from far and wide and a large turnout is anticipated at Subang in 2008. For example, in 2007 at Nexus Karambunai Golf Resort, Kota Kinabalu, a record entry of 123 participants from 18 countries was registered.

KGNS members may recall that the MAO has served as the launch pad for many a professional career in golf, sending Zainal Abidin Yusof, Tan Yee Khan, Eshak Bluah, P. Segaran and R. Nachimuthu into the pro ranks. Former amateurs/participants who have since found international fame as professionals include the likes of Australia's Robert Allenby, Mardan Mamat of Singapore, Shiv Kapur from India, Filipino Jovic Pangusan and Thailand's Thongchai Jaidee and Prom Messawat.

Immediately after the Amateur Open, on 26 - 28 May 2008, KGNS will continue to serve as venue for the inaugural Malaysian Match Play Championship. This is an all-new MGA sanctioned event where the top 32 players from the MAO will go on to compete, in a different but no less challenging format. In this respect, all MAO participants will be required to play 72 holes to qualify for the Championship.

For a premier golf club such as KGNS, the staging of the Malaysian Amateur Open is yet another opportunity to showcase the pristine condition of our fairways and greens. More importantly, it is to serve notice, to demonstrate and reiterate to all and sundry our capability to run world-class tournaments, as we have done in the not-too-distant past. It is hoped that the Malaysian Amateur Open will be the forerunner for KGNS to be the host venue for yet another internationally-flavoured tournament, the Malaysian Open in the near future.

Kelana Course, Anyone?

There was a time when the Kelana Course was inappropriately nicknamed, in grave injustice, we might add, “Kiddies Corner”, with the connotation that it was suited only to novices and high-handicappers. The Main Course, now named “Putra”, was then, and still is, the place to play real golf, if you choose to believe some of us in the KGNS family. Possibly, this could be the underlying reason for the poor (“no quorum”) support, leading almost always to cancellations, of ABC Medals when scheduled at the Kelana Course. By contrast, there is a scramble for berths when the Medals are staged at the Putra!

For many, though, the Kelana has its own inherent charm and challenge – the fairways are narrower and, therefore, not altogether forgiving to errant shots! To approach the smaller and trickier greens, you would need to be straight and sure! Excellent conditions all, don’t you think, for any golfer looking to sharpen his or her game before taking on the lengthier and wider Putra? And yet.....

The Competitions Sub-Committee has taken stock of this and, to correct the anomaly, will continue to promote and run Medal events at the Kelana by combining all the categories, i.e., Men, Ladies and Juniors. This will more than make up the requisite minimum number of participants to validate the event and, more importantly, give to the Kelana Course the recognition and respect it deserves!

Happy golfing!

Kelana Course Sultan’s Nine
Hole No. 7
188 metres (par-3)

Blue	:	188 metres
White	:	176 metres
Red	:	131 metres
Index	:	15

This par-3, that plays 188 metres from the blue tee, is a straight forward hole but does not yield pars too easily. First, there’s the length, necessitating the use of a metalwood or hybrid club for many. Then there is the danger of sending your ball out of bounds if your drive veers too much to the right. A bunker also guards the left side of the green. Once on the large putting surface, read your lines with care as three putts are common.

Hisyam Does KGNS Proud!

15-year old Mohamad Hisyam bin Abdul Majid (A841-1G) did KGNS proud in finishing joint 3rd Overall in the recent Malaysian National Trials organised by Malaysian Golf Association (MGA).

The trials, a permanent fixture in the MGA's calendar held in early January each year is part of the Association's effort to scout for new emerging talent and also acts as a benchmark for selection to the national team and back-up squads Restricted to all amateur golfers with handicap 6 and below, the 6-day Trials attracted 47 male golfers from all over Malaysia. The first two legs of two days each were held at Bukit Unggul Golf Club and Danau Golf Club, both in Bangi, where after a cut-off, the top 20 moved on to play the final for another two days at Bukit Jalil Golf and Country Club.

Hisyam, handicap 4, played consistent golf during the first two stages (75, 75, 75 and 72) to make the cut and finish joint 4th. On day 1 of the 3rd leg, a brilliant 2-under 70 moved him to 3rd place on his own but a final round of 77 saw him having to share the spot.

Syabas Hisyam, who has been selected by MGA for the national team!

“ Besides having Paula Creamer as an idol, she also aspires to fly the KGNS banner high one day, on the international golf scene! ”

at Junior Golf Clinic

If you ever pay a visit to our Junior Golf Clinics, chances are you will come upon a precocious eight-year old (as of 1 June 2008!) named Aisyah bte Mohd Ismail (M7681F) engrossed in practice! Her interest for the game developed, possibly, out of the sheer boredom of having to tag along with her dad on his frequent sessions to the driving range.

Be that as it may, the little lass now has a bona fide affinity for the game. She trains regularly at the KGNS Junior Golf Clinics, with a lot of encouragement and support from parents Puan Roslinda and Encik Mohd Ismail. Apparently, the friendly environment of these clinics helps make her very comfortable whilst training to the extent that she often asks for more time to improve her swing techniques! As an indication of her determination to excel, she can be a mite testy with Dad for his caring, though unsolicited, remarks during training about “ball flight not taking off” or “I think you need more training!”

Aisyah attends a national type primary school (Chinese) in Kg. Subang and there is an older 13-year sibling Mohd Ilyas, who also accompanies her to the Sunday golf clinics at KGNS. One more thing, Aisyah is always unmistakably decked out in her favourite colour, pink. Does that ring a bell? Besides having Paula Creamer as an idol, she also aspires to fly the KGNS banner high one day, on the international golf scene! A tall order, you say? Well, you haven't met Aisyah yet!

GONG XI FA CHAI

Ushering the Year of the Rat, "Gong Xi Fa Cai" was the theme for Members' Night held on the ninth day of the Chinese New Year.

The evening's festivities began with the traditional Lion Dance, performed by the orphans from Ti-Ratana. Heralded by the pulsating beat of drums and the clashing of cymbals, the duo of lions went through their energetic dance routine, much to the excitement of the eager crowd. Making its way from the lobby entrance of the clubhouse up to Bilik Buaya, to subsequently collect their "ang pow", the pair of lions even found time to delight surprised diners at the Eagle's Nest.

The night went on with a number of breathtaking performances including a very skillful vase-balancing act by a Chinese acrobat, precision-timed sword play, face-change display and a Chinese dance troupe that amazed everyone with their super-flexible body contortions.

As is the custom of KGNS, the Social and Recreation Sub-Committee invited some of the members in attendance to join in and toss the "Yee Sang" (raw fish) dish with fond wishes of prosperity, longevity and good fortune for everyone in the year ahead!

Are You Game To Be In The KGNS Table Tennis Squad?

Date: Saturday, 31 May 2008

Entrance Fee: RM5.00 per person; includes high-tea and prizes.

A table tennis team competition has been scheduled for the school holidays to enable a squad to be selected and trained for skill-upgrading to represent KGNS in inter-club games.

Participants in the forthcoming competition will be grouped into teams with players pitched against other players of similar skill level.

To participate, please register at the Reception Counter. Closing date for entry is Wednesday, 28 May 2008.

Thursday is Table Tennis Day

Thursday evenings have been designated "Table Tennis Days", so do make it a point to come and meet with other enthusiasts for a game or two!

It will take awhile to match up players of similar skills but please make an effort to join us as we need your support so that the game can be taken to the next level.

We are also attempting to compile a list of KGNS table tennis players. In the meantime, bats and balls are available from the attendant at the Gymnasium and if a player is early, he or she can wait there for the others. A table has been permanently set up at Squash Court 1. If an additional table is needed, we can make arrangements for it.

Do's and Don'ts

No Smart Card, No service!

We seek the co-operation of all members patronising the club's F & B and other club outlets to produce their SMART CARDS upon request when placing orders for meals, refreshments or services. Besides showing proof of membership, SMART CARDS serve to correctly identify the member/patron and avoid wrongful billing and to safeguard members' interests.

Accordingly, our staff and operators are NOT to be reprimanded for "inconveniencing" members in asking for their SMART CARDS.

Smart Card Is Not Transferable

Please do not pass your Smart Card around for use by family members. If you would like your spouse or children (12-18 years) to enjoy the club's facilities, kindly register them as well and we will be happy to issue each of them a Smart Card of their own.

We have had cases of members reporting that, without their knowledge, bills have been generated through use of their Smart Cards by their children!

Smart Cards But Bills Not Generated

Our billing system is set to check on defaulting members and, although the Smart Card is produced, the system will automatically block any transaction and bills that cannot be generated unless and until their "default" status is rescinded. Therefore, defaulting members are reminded to settle their accounts promptly so as to avoid any inconvenience or embarrassment.

Smart Card Wrongly Returned

Occasionally, Smart Cards are wrongly returned to members by our serving staff or operators, especially during the peak hour rush at the Golfers' Terrace. Members are, therefore, advised to take the necessary precaution in ensuring that their Smart Cards are correctly returned and/or received before leaving the club premises.

Merit Points System

Effective March 2008, a MERIT POINTS SYSTEM has been implemented for all golf competitions, applicable to men golfers, with some exceptions as listed hereunder.

For the record, the system has already been in place and in practice for lady and junior golfers.

The object of the merit point system is twofolds, viz.,

- i) to encourage and increase participation in club events and, thereby, foster greater social interaction amongst golfers.

Ladies Golf Special

9-Hole Golf with a Chinese Flavour

More Of the Ladies 9-Hole Social Golf

ii) to recognise and reward golfers for their achievements and their standing in KGNS.

Golfers participating in any and/or all club competitions are entitled to merit points, which are awarded for two distinct categories, viz.,

i) for "entry", where a minimum number of points is earned just for taking part, and for

ii) "win or place", where additional points awarded (for 1st to 5th place) are scaled in accordance with the position(s) in which golfers finish.

While points for "entry" or "win or place" are generally the same for all club fixtures, there will be premiums added on for major events, for example,

	"Entry" points	"Winners" points
ABC Medal	20	75
Club Championship	25	100

The merit points system will NOT apply in the following competitions which are categorised as "closed" affairs, i.e., exclusive to only one particular age or mixed group and not open to all men golfers, such as:

- Senior Golfers Monthly Medals
- Greensome
- Inter-Club matches
- Social events, e.g., "Chicken Run"

What could be more entertaining than to have a triple treat of (a) 9-Hole Ladies-only Social Golf, (b) a sumptuous meal and (c) 8 lady golfers turning "supermodels" overnight?

That was exactly what was served up at the recent get-together to herald in the Year of the Rat.

Other than minor hiccups with the timing of the Chinese music, the models gave a 'Wow' performance that had their fellow golfers' eyes bulge in disbelief.

The eight "models" paraded their own timeless collection of all the favourite "Cheong Sums", the majestic "empress" gowns and other outfits with Chinese motifs.

All in all, the 9-hole golf (combined 2-ball stableford game) was a healthy outing, the food was scrumptious, the fellowship was fun, and of course, the fashion show tops it all.

When	: Normally on a Wednesday morning, every other month
Next social game	: 7 May 2008
Tee Time	: From 7.30 a.m. onwards, with priority to a physically present flight of 4 players
Mode of Play/Theme	: We try to vary
Food	: We make an effort to plan the menu to suit the occasion
Cost	: RM12.00 per head (includes game, prize and food).

What's Goes On In KGNS - The KUTU Game!

Datin Zahariah (B 071), one of the pioneer spouse members of KGNS, mooted the idea of the "kutu" game after transferring back from Johor Bahru. In looking to rekindle ties and getting together with 'long-lost' lady golfer friends, she came up with the interesting notion of "pool and play".

How it works is that the ladies, most of whom are homemakers, put aside (from their marketing money, we believe) and contribute RM 100 each month towards a common pool.

Out of this central fund, the group then dishes out for themselves at each golf outing the requisite food, prizes and "door gifts" too, not to mention a big helping of fun and fellowship! "We have gained more friends instead," says Datin Zahariah, "and since most of us are high handicappers, we enjoy our games at the Kelana course — we only play 9 holes". And that's not all — to spice up the golf, the mode of play is varied each time, e.g.. Stableford format or 4-club competition or, when so inclined, the Texas Scramble. Just a thought...may husbands join in? As caddies only?

Chicken Run at KGNS

With the focus on fellowship and to promote social interaction among golfers of all ages, the "Chicken Run", a 9-hole fun event, is open to all members (men, ladies and juniors) with valid handicaps. Played off both the 1st and 10th Holes on Stableford format for each Nine, the inaugural event held on Wednesday, 16th January 2007 at the Putra Course drew much interest from golfers though the final turnout was smaller than anticipated.

Nevertheless, it was encouraging enough to warrant a follow-up fixture scheduled for:

Date	: Wednesday, 16 th April 2008
Time	: First tee-off at 4.00 p.m., last at 5.00 p.m.
Place	: Putra Course
Entrance fee	: RM 10.00 per head (includes high tea and prizes)
Prizes	: 1 st Nine	1 st place – 2 roast chickens
		2 nd place – 1 roast chicken
	: 2 nd Nine	1 st place – 2 roast chickens
		2 nd place – 1 roast chicken

All are welcome! Early bird registration on a first-come-first-serve basis allows you to pick your preferred tee off times while slots for walk-in competitors will be subject to availability. So pass the word to your friends and fellow golfers and come around for a fun afternoon on 16th April 2008.

The Sunday Boys

When good friends get together, someone is sure to come up with a bright idea that works wonders. And so it was with the "Sunday Boys", an ensemble of 20 or more golfers that slug it out only on Sunday afternoons, for loads of fellowship and fun and a healthy dose of charity.

Captained by a charismatic and multi-lingual A. Subramaniam (aka Japan Maniam for his fluency in Japanese, as well as Thai, Mandarin, Indonesian, etc), the group includes stalwarts like Suppiah Subramaniam (S 476), S. Subramaniam (S 670) and many others.

Their setup is simple and pretty informal — someone in the group is designated to book flights and inform the others, the format or mode of play is fixed, then all chip in RM30.00 (for refreshments) into a pool and, last but not least, show up at the tee box! Underpinning it all, though, is the serious side of contributing to charity — group members fork out RM100.00 to be disbursed to support the needy, viz., an orphanage, in the name of the late Chandra Kumar's family.

Obvious as it may seem to some, "membership" in the Sunday Boys is not restricted to any particular ethnic community but open to all. Anyone is welcome to join in and there have been occasions when guests from Japan, Thailand, USA and Europe have been known to join in the fray.

For K.J. Singham (J 075), playing with this group for more than three years has very much improved his golf game. "We rotate flights and in case of shortage in pool money, we top up. We even have our own T-shirts, sponsored by S. Subramaniam!" he said.

KGNS' Chudi and Irene Walk Tall

In a field filled with club champions, our own champions Irene Hong (3) and M. Chudi (4) walked tall for KGNS in Golf Malaysia Champion of Champions Championship 2008 held at Sungai Long Golf & Country Club, Kuala Lumpur on March 27-28.

While Irene took the third spot with scores of 79,83 for total 162; M.Chudi shot rounds of 80,78 for 158 total on the challenging 6,560 yards course.

"The course was playing 'friendly' on the first day and then it became very long on the second day. My putting let me down on tremendously and I only managed to chipped in for a birdie on the 11th hole," said Irene.

What's in A Name? KELAB GOLF NEGARA SUBANG or KELAB GOLF NEGARA, Subang

// In the case of KGNS, our club is the first and the only golf club in the country opened and established by a Prime Minister of the country! //

What's in a name? A name brings recognition and identity. In this respect, 'KGNS' or 'Kelab Golf Negara Subang' is quite misleading in a sense. It is situated in Kelana Jaya rather than in Subang, and is only in the vicinity of Subang airport. That too has been closed and is now known as 'KLIA', located near Sepang. Arguably, although the KLIA is situated in Sepang district, the international airport is the main gateway into Kuala Lumpur and hence the 'KLIA' designation with no reference to Sepang.

In the case of KGNS, our club is the first and the only golf club in the country opened and established by a Prime Minister of the country!

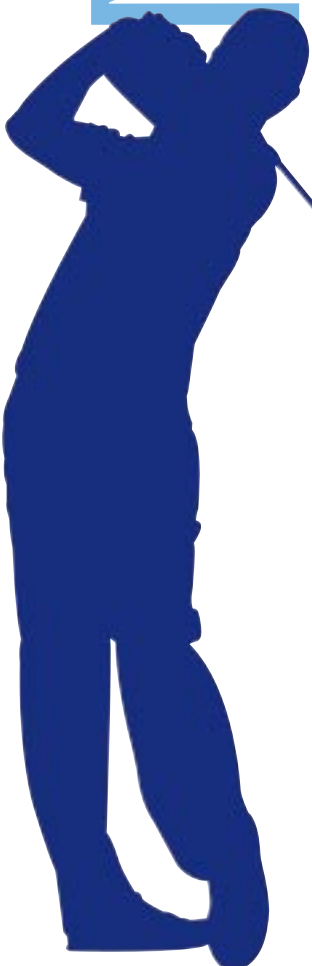

Secondly, KGNS by its name, and mind you that in itself was created by an Act of Parliament, is a NATIONAL GOLF CLUB. It is not a golf club for the Subang nation or 'negara Subang', as the description implies! If in our Vision we want to be the Premier Membership Golf Club in the country, then that national status must be boldly emphasised. We have to seriously consider a change to suit our given stature.

Would it not, therefore, be more appropriate to call our club, in full, 'KELAB GOLF NEGARA, Subang', i.e., with its designated name highlighted in bold letters to keep its identity and national status intact, and a comma and small lettering for Subang to indicate locality? Accordingly, in translation, we would effectively be called NATIONAL GOLF CLUB, Subang. Simple though it may be, this little change reflects a lot of difference in our character and validates our standing as a national heritage club. Perhaps like all other organisations of similar status, we too would be deserving of an annual allocation from the government for our upkeep and development!

Muzani Bin Musa

In much the same fashion as his senior colleague Maintenance Supervisor, Azaman, KGNS Personnel Officer, Muzani bin Musa, 38, began his career at the club in the F & B sector as a daily-rated waiter! That was back in October 1988. A little over a year later, his position was made permanent and he continued serving at what was then called the “Mixed Lounge.” In 1991, not long after computerisation arrived at KGNS, Muzani was promoted to POS (Point-of-Sale) Clerk, mainly a cashiering function in the Accounts Department. It was an opportune time for the enterprising lad to enroll in night classes in computer studies on part-time basis at the then Binary Business School, with an eye towards career advancement.

In 1998, however, all POS Clerk functions were taken over by the F & B Department and the position, in turn became redundant. This proved fortuitous for Muzani who had the opportunity to move to Administration and serve as a personnel clerk under Department head, the late Mohd. Hashim Bin Hamdon, whom he still holds in high regard to this day.

“I have learnt a lot,” says Muzani, “and he was always there to guide me.” When Hashim was medically boarded out, in 2002, Muzani was promoted to assume his current post of Personnel Officer.

The father to a 4-year old boy, Muzani, who hails from Tasek Gelugor, Seberang Prai Utara but has lived in Selangor since infancy, has many memories of KGNS, both fond and bittersweet. He recalls the elation he felt when the move to the new clubhouse was completed back in 1996, as it provided the sense of a new beginning! February 2002, was a sad time for him, however, with the passing of Osman Ali, then F & B Supervisor and Union Chairman, a good friend and colleague.

Muzani regards KGNS as his second home and he hopes that someday the club will gain international recognition and that the values, as embodied in our Vision & Mission statement, are universally practised. The latter, he reckons, will strengthen the bond between club members and staff, regardless of the change of guard in Management Committees. In this context, he looks forward to continued development in KGNS particularly in the area of facilities, given that our golf course is already top class!

Bon Voyage, AMIR

After 26 years of dedicated service, Amiruddin bin Kassim, Golf Supervisor, has called it quits at KGNS. He first came to us in December 1981 when, at the tender age of 17, he commenced employment at Poolside as a part-time waiter, in which position he was confirmed the following year. His true calling, though, was golf and Amir got his break when, in 1989, he was transferred to that department to serve as Caddy Master. Here’s how he has progressed through the intervening years:

- April 1994 : Competitions Clerk
- Nov 1994 : Chief Caddy Master
- March 1996 : Sports Assistant, involved in day-to-day administration of Golf Department, scoring, score cards and handicaps update, daily staff roster, registration of guests and reciprocal members, amongst other duties.
- 2006 : Position re-designated as Golf Supervisor until 29/02/08

In cataloguing his experiences in the near-3 decades at KGNS, Amir recalled the 80’s as a time of much close inter-action with members and staff alike and in the 90’s the incident, when as Caddy Master, he was struck on the head by a caddie, fainted and was on M/C for a month! The real challenges, though, were in the last 9 years when, fully exposed to golf and a host of new golfers, he had to learn how “to settle down and keep a happy mind” at all times! In any case, the most unforgettable experience in his books was the time when he had to testify in a court of law on a “wrong score” suit!

Amir’s immediate plans are to venture into the business of fish and chicken breeding in Paya Jaras, Sungei Buloh. For now, in acknowledging his thanks to all past and present Captains, Lady Captains, Management Committees, KGNS members and staff, he has singled out for special mention his sifu, Encik Shukri M. Said (M980) for all the guidance and knowledge given over the years.

Here’s what others have to say about Amir:

Sifu Shukri bin Said (M 980) :
 “When I was a Junior Golf Executive of KGNS, I observed a hardworking and responsible waiter and gave a strong recommendation for Amir to be promoted to Sports Assistant. He was willing to work odd hours without any hesitation. I’m proud of him for his excellent performance. Sad to see him leaving and wish him all the best.”

Alex Hong (H 136) : “Good staff and very dedicated to his duty. Wish him all the best. Sorry and sad to see him ‘cos he has managed to handle competitions very well and smoothly.”

Mahrome Mohamed (M 597) :
 “The most hardworking and trustworthy staff of KGNS!”
